Welcome...

to Wild Wing Plantation! We invite you to plan your next event in an atmosphere of casual charm and elegance. Wild Wing Plantation has been hosting events and creating memories for over ten years. Whether you are considering a small business meeting or elaborate wedding, we offer professional, full service event planning with a dedicated and experienced staff.

After reviewing our banquet menu, we hope you see our commitment to quality and presentation. Our goal is to offer you the right package of banquet services that will insure the success of your event. The following menus are in no way an inclusive list of what is available. We can customize a specific menu to fit your needs and will make every effort to accommodate you and your budget.

We look forward to working with you and to make your event a memorable and stress-free experience. If you have any questions or concerns please let us know.
